

CORRESPONDENCE

Stoops.

(By B. M. Goodan.)

Farmers have been making great headway cribbing corn.

Several began stripping tobacco last week. The weed gives promise of stripping out fine.

Mrs. Will Satterfield, of Preston, is visiting the family of Thos. Satterfield.

A large amount of shooting followed the expiration of the game law. Game is scarcer here than ever known before.

Mrs. Louis Urban has returned from a several days' visit to relatives at Lexington.

Raymond Johnson, of Terra Haute, Ind., visited the family of Edward Toy last week.

E. L. Fassett is delivering 200 barrels of corn to Rex Hall at $6 per barrel.

Practically all of the turkey crop has been bought up. There was the fewest number of the birds ever known in this section.

Mrs. Thos. Sanders and son, Cecil, visited the family of W. M. Kissick, at Little Rock last week.

Mrs. Cynthia Williams and daughter, Miss Mollie, of Owingsville, visited the family of the writer one day last week.

Robt. Barkley returned Thursday from a visit to relatives in Florida.

One thing sadly missed by us country folk, this time, is sorghum. This delicacy, which used to be classed lowliest and commonest of sweets, has become so scarce and high that it can only be reached by millionaires.

Mrs. Belle Warner left Saturday for Middletown, O., to spend some time with her children, who live there.

Jesse Pendleton visited relatives near Olympian Springs last week.

Lee Thompson, of Weston, Mo., came last week to visit friends and relatives in Bath and Montgomery counties.

John Leach purchased last week the Lewis McClure property at Hinkston Bridge, consisting of residence, storehouse and seven acres of land. Price private.

Robt. L. Stone and wife, of Owingsville, came up Saturday to visit relatives here and at Mt. Sterling.

Robt. Lyons, wife and children, of Sharpsburg, came Sunday to visit the family of Pliny Moore.

Andrew Webb left Saturday for Atlanta, Ga., to return home with Mr. and Mrs. Webb who went to Georgia last spring to live, but were not satisfied with their new home.

Howard's Mill.

(By L. W. Mallory.)

Corn shucking has been all the go the past week. 20 cents a shock is the price. James Kelsoe, colored, broke the record, shucked 19 shocks Friday.

Mr. John Woods is in a serious condition, gradually growing weaker.

Walter Carr, wife and family, of Spencer, spent Sunday with writer and wife.

Tom Woods, son of John Woods, of New Orleans, is at his father's bedside.

Wm. Johnson and wife and Howard Stevenson and wife spent Sunday with Andrew Johnson and wife, near Spencer.

Walter Wood and wife, of Winchester, are visiting her father, John Lee.

Most of the tobacco in this section has been sold from 20 to 30 cents a pound but none stripped yet.

Howard Stevenson and wife and Mrs. Hedge Thompson attended Mr. W. W. Stevenson's sale at

DON'T BE A "SLACKER"
BUT SEE
"The Slacker"
—AT—
THE TABB THEATRE
Saturday, Nov. 24th

MEET THIS STYLE FACE TO FACE

at The WALSH Company and you'll see the best all round belter Suit made. The overcoat over the man's arm is a belt thru fur collar style.

A look here at our $15.00 and $18.00 offerings in Suits and Overcoats and you buy.

The WALSH Company

Incorporated

Winchester Thursday.

Stanley May, of Dayton, O., who has been visiting relatives here, left for home Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Fraizer visited at Stanton Saturday and Sunday. (Delayed.)

Mrs. Frank Trimble and Miss Hargis Montjoy, of Mt. Sterling, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barnes.

Roy Stevens and Marion Thompson, two soldier boys from Louisville, spent last Saturday and Sunday with their parents near here.

A surprise wedding—Miss Ethel Stevens, teacher of our school, surprised her school pupils and friends of this neighborhood by going to Winchester Saturday and getting married to Guy Fraizer, of Stanton, Ky. Miss Stevens is the daughter of George Stevens, of this neighborhood, highly respected by all who know them. Mr. Fraizer is said to be a splendid young man and is Deputy Assessor of Powell county. Howard's Mill wishes them a long, happy and prosperous life. May they live a life as happy as on their wedding day.

Kiddville.

(By Bernice Conley)

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Finney have arrived for a protracted stay with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Finney.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Bryant of Pittsburg were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Conlee.

Mr. Carroll Keller of Scholtsville, was killed Friday, by the accidental discharge of a gun, while hunting. Funeral services were held at Bethlehem Sunday. Burial in Machpelah Cemetery at Mt. Sterling.

Mr. Vernon Conlee was home for the week-end from Camp Taylor. Miss Pearl Pieratt spent Sunday night with Miss Bernice Conlee.

BARRY SELLS FARM

Mr. J. L. Barry last week sold his farm on the Howard's Mill pike consisting of 122 acres to Mr. B. Frank Perry. Price private. This is an excellent farm as it contains quite a large amount of fine tobacco land. Mr. Perry will get possession March 1st.

BUYS PROPERTY

Mr. E. H. Moss last week purchased the small place of Mrs. S. Marshall, on the Grassy Lick pike, last week and will get possession March 1st. Price paid $2,150.00.

New Dromedary Dates
at Vanarsdell's.

EVERYONE WILL ENJOY "The Slacker"

Except a Slacker—He will not
—AT—
THE TABB THEATRE
Saturday, Nov. 24th

SELLS SAXON ROADSTER

Dr. J. J. Letton, of Bethel, Bath county, last week purchased of Mr. J. O. Tyler, of Winchester, the representative of the Saxon automobile in this section, a Saxon Roadster.

The Advocate for printing.

R. G. BAKER BUYS FARM

Mr. R. G. Baker has purchased 100 acres of land on Spencer creek from Mr. Henry Ledford at the reported price of $140.00 per acre.

New prunes and evaporated peaches
at Vanarsdell's.

Express and mails will be congested this Christmas. Christmas packages should be sent early. We have prepared for a record-breaking business this Christmas. Our store is filled with beautiful new goods which you are cordially invited to inspect.

BRYAN & ROBINSON

...JEWELERS...